

Press release

for immediate release

Contact Person: Wafa Osta

wafa.osta@yahoo.com

M: + 961-3-654731

T: + 961-1-735135

November 28, 2008. Beirut, Lebanon

The Lebanese Society of Family Medicine (LSFM) runs for smoking free spaces

The Lebanese Society of Family Medicine (LSFM) endorses the Beirut Marathon Association at "BLOM Beirut Marathon 08-Against", on Sunday November 30, 2008, and takes part in the Hospitality Relay Race.

With the endorsement of her Excellency, director general of the ministry of tourism, Ms. Nada Sardouk, and president of the restaurants syndicate, Mr. Paul Ariss, the Public Advisory Board of the Lebanese Society of Family Medicine will initiate the soft launch of

"give me a space to BREATHE", اتركلي مجال اتنفس

An antismoking campaign to:

1. endorse non smokers' rights
2. stop smoking initiation

The runners for Hospitality Relay Race will carry the torch of the "Give me a space to Breathe" campaign in a sign of the awareness of the industry to healthy life style, customer's health and well being.

For more information on the campaign visit: www.lsfm.net

Members of the Public Advisory Board:

AMAL institute for the handicapped, Beirut Marathon Association, Ministry of Health, Monot theater, Nursing school at AUB, YASA

Supporters and friends:

Lebanese Ministries: Tourism, Interior and Education, Intl' organizations; World Health Organization, Private Sector: Hospitality services and Restaurants Syndicate